In the last Presidential election, Pierce received 254 electoral votes and - cott 42.

The opposition to the Damocracy in the South have a painful time of it. They tried first to prove themselves the best Southern men extant and the Democratic party very unsound. They puraded what they called Buchanan's anti-slavery record, which was very short indeed, and consists of some old resolutio sat a town meeting, and s word or two about slavery, from which it appeared that he did not consider it in the abstract the chief end of man. Instead of eschewing the slavery question, as they promised to do in their platform, they made it, for a time, their whole stock in trade. They have found, at last, tha this course wouldn't pay; and they have com merced to be very much concerned about two sec tional parties. One very Northern, headed by tion I parties. After they had spont all their bread to prove that they were the most Southers morle extant; so Southern that they couldn' stand the Nebraska-Kaneas bill at all, on accounof that terrible Abolition d ctrine of squatter sor ereign's, they have concinded that it's very wicked to be Southern like the Democrats; and now they begin to howl over danger to the Union on account of sectional parties. They are not sectional, not they. A short time ago they could not tolerate Case, or Douglas, or Richardson, or ecount of their Abelitionism; now they are ready to put up with anything. They are most ccommodating to the sectional party North, that their allies in the free States all support. They are now Union men-dreadfully so. After all their purity as Southern men, they are not particular, so they save the Union.

If they could have made the South believe their professions, there would have been no change of front; but the people of the South didn't believe a word they said on that subject, and they have now concluded to play, on another etring, quite un opposite tune. Tee South will recollect that they were, by far, the mest sound ber. The companies of the First Artillery, now If so, they were the sectional party, if there were artillery, the Light Batteries excepted, and and that he would enforce them to the letter, and one in the South; and they could not charge the fifth Infantry, are ordered to the depression who had infringed the hereto. Democrats with being a Southern sectional party | nent of Florida, to reach there early in Novem-

They have given up the ground which they started out upon. They are now the compre mising party on the slavery question. Still they have not all got their one yet; whilst some are rail ng at the Democratio party as being a Southern sectional party, others are harping on the old string, proving that they are the most sectional party extant; being mire . xact and uncompromising on the slavery question than any other A consistent party, that had any character to lose, or any future to expect, would not allow Itself to be inv. lved in these self-stultifying posi tions; but the Kaow-Nothing party have nothing to lose, and no future to look to; and its self-contraduction amounts to nothing. I se members expect to turn up something else after November; and then Eswing rises on the ruins of the Know-Nothing party, they will not be responsible for its broken p om see, violated pledges, and self-stultifications They b gan a secret party; but now they pro fees to have discarded secrecy. They swore oaths against foreigners and Catholics; but we hear no more now about the Pope, and they are anxious to get foreigners to help rule America, under the ame of "Western Lights." In the North they have forgotten all their zeal against his Holiness, and expect to rule America by the foreign vote.

We think, however, this last dodge to convert themselves into a Union party, is the richest and most comical that has ever been seen. They swore profane oaths, instituted signs, grips, and passwords, had their brethren counted, registered, and watched; but such a party to split to pieces, this country has never seen. They only meet to split. Any proposition about slavery explodes them; one part flying North, and the other South; and yet they pretend to be a Union party. Now, if there is a single intelligible or unintelligible proposition on the slavery question, in any aspect In which it is in dispute, will satisfy a Northern and Southern Know-Nothing, we should like to hear it. If there is one over which they will not fall out and quarrel, we should like to see it; for it would be a curiosity. This Kansas-Nebraska bill is a very dreadful affair. The Know-Nothings do hate it; and no now brings 100f. Ladies should shorten their wonder. It has been a Pandora's box to them, we admit. It has split them to pieces. The very mention of it makes the hair of a Know-Nothing rice on his head. No wonder it is denounced. Ireland, on the 18th instant, on her return to St The brethren have been hunting up reasons to John's, Newfoundland, and would repeat the denounce it; for it is the cause of all their caiam- oundings of the Atlantic so successfully taken on 1855, and split upon it; they agitated it again in Tebruary, 1855, and split again. They split upon

It in all the free States. Oh! the trouble it has condemn themselves when they condemn this bill, for it is their act.

Then It was Douglas; ah! that monster, Douglas, that transposed the bill, in order to make himself President. But if he did this deed from such a motive, is it not a sad comment upon the intelligible motive, is it not a sad comment upon the intelligible motive, is it not a sad comment upon the intelligible motive, is it not a sad comment upon the intelligible motive is a sad comment upon the intelligible motive in all preceding it.

He had go d reason for his action; but what shall we say of the rampant Know-Nothings, Mes rs. Cox, of Kentu kv. ard Z illicoffer, of Teunessee, who surported the iniquity, and of all the Know-Nothings South who elected representatives, who did the ame thing?

But, finally. This bill involves the slavery nestion, and all Know Nothingdom, In council assembled, promised to eschew it, and they are every day violating their promise by discussing it. We grant that the tarritorial question has d no and mutually beneficial; that the excession of hem a great dual of injury; but it s their own slavory was favorable to the comfort of the clave, fault.
